

RD 1 (cont'd)- PREVIEW

MOLTEN VICTORIAN YOUTH CHAMPIONSHIP WOMEN

We continue round one this weekend, and what a jam-packed Saturday and Sunday it will be. Kilsyth have a tough double-header, firstly going up against reigning premiers Melbourne, who dominated in their first game of the year. While on Sunday they have host Waverley who knocked off Eltham to the tune of 13 points.

Melbourne also plays on Sunday, against minor premiers from last year, Ringwood. This is sure to be an exciting game with the Hawks looking to go a step further than last year, and the Tigers looking to build on a great start and go back-to-back.

Newcomers Altona will play two games with weekend as well. Firstly visiting the Magic, who struggled against a strong Nunawading side last weekend. They then host Sandringham in what will be an important game for both sides.

Bulleen copped an almighty beating at the hands of Melbourne in the first part of round one. This weekend they will make the road trip to Broadmeadows and will attempt to get on the winners list for season 2017. It will be tough though, as the Broncos will be riding the wave of a first game victory.

Both Eltham and Diamond Valley will be looking to get off the mark for this season when they face off on Saturday. They will need their offense to fire if either of them are going to be successful. Both struggled managing less than 60 points in their first game.

The Dandenong Rangers will make the trek to the MARS Minerdome on Saturday night to face Ballarat. The visitors will go in with confidence, after their defense kept Sandringham to just 47 points last weekend. They will then host other country team Bendigo. The Braves will be a much bigger challenge for the Rangers; this should be a tight contest.

Nunawading will head into their battle with Knox with confidence after they kick-started their campaign with a win against Hawthorn. Tessa Boyd starred for the Spectres in that one, and will look to do the same against the Raiders.
