

We have an absolute plethora of games on the cards for the final round of the regular season. Key match-ups pits Diamond Valley & Blackburn against one another, Knox vs. Eltham plus Ringwood taking on both Nunawading and Melbourne.

Starting with the key games, DV are in what looks to be (not including Sunday's games) a must win match to secure a finals berth over Blackburn, as they do not hold head-to-head over the Vikings. With fourth spot in the Watson conference up for grabs, this game is the most pivotal of the weekend! The Eagles travel to Sherbrooke, while Blackburn host Altona in their remaining Sunday fixtures – games which both teams would be expecting to win however very wary of their opponents.

Knox tackle Eltham in a bid for a home final (Top 2); while Eltham may have the slimmest of chances if a miracle is to occur with other results. Can Malik Meunier lead them to a final at SBC?

Ringwood have a tough weekend but they've been up to every challenge this back half of the year. Nunawading and Melbourne are both forces to be reckoned with in #BIGV17, but two wins this weekend can funnily enough still see the Hawks qualify for the post-season!!! With the team first mentality out at Ringwood, could we see a miracle on Rings street?

Sandringham are at home against Sherbrooke and desire a much needed victory in the lead up to the post-season. The Rangers travel to Altona, before hosting Hawthorn – two wins this weekend punches their finals ticket.

Bulleen host Hawthorn as they look to take winning form into the finals (they're on a losing streak remember) – this game and the Blackburn vs. Altona game putting the Molten Victorian Youth Championship 2017 Big V regular season on ice.

It has been a blast! Can't wait to see what results come about for our finals match-ups! See you next week!
