

After a weekend off let's hope everyone has come back fresh and firing for a big round 5.

Camberwell kick off round 5 taking on Chelsea who are coming off an upset win over Corio Bay before Easter, hopefully they can retain that winning attitude and get one over on Camberwell who are going for 4 wins in a row. Chelsea having a mixed bag go into this game 2-2 will be wanting to show their tough opponents that they can win on the road as well as on their home turf.

Corio return home this weekend to take on Keilor, Corio will be looking to get back to the winners table this round after a heart wrenching loss last round. Keilor have proven they are a YL1W side after coming up from YL2W last year with 2-2 record. Corio won't want to drop another game if they want to keep up with an undefeated Warrandyte to compete for top spot.

Coburg are on a roll having won their last 2 games both on the road however they are yet to get a win at home which I'm sure Werribee will be wanting to take full advantage of. Werribee are not the only team yet to get a win on the board but will be wanting it so bad this week, If Hayley Jones has another solid game and they have some others step up to help her this game is definitely possible, but they have a big task ahead of them if they are to stop Lyndsey Hoogenhout and Olivia Dalmau who are a massive threat both ends of the court. Definitely one to watch.

Craigieburn have the hardest game this week taking on Warrandyte on their court, Warrandyte are still undefeated and its unlikely that that is going to change this week. Craigieburn have had a hard start to the season and are still searching for a win, they will need to hustle harder than they have yet to stay close to the number 1 team. Warrandyte won't want to drop this game if they want to stay on top!

McKinnon who are 3-1 look to make it 4-1 this week when they face Geelong on their home court, Geelong haven't had the best start to the season going 1-3 into round 5 will be aiming to defend their home court and get another much needed win on the board. McKinnon are going from strength to strength with Kelli Champion & Chelsea Bransden leading their team to victory, Can Geelong turn their season around this week after a much needed break to sort out what is going wrong?
