

Suns 51 - Panthers 75: Sherbrooke would have felt good at the half when scores were tied at 34-34, however a 41-17 second half ensured this result was going the way of the Panthers. The Suns shot at a lowly 27% clip and were 8/19 from the foul line. For Wallan, Keenan Gorski (29pts) was yet again a step ahead of everyone else, while for the Suns no player dropped more than 11pts.

Bushrangers 67 - All Stars 82: Despite leading early and again looking far more competitive with Kannon Burrage (30pts) in the team, the Bushrangers just didn't have enough around their new star to get a badly-needed win against Collingwood. The visitors didn't have everything their own way, but they did have Dylan Webb (26pts) and Manny Hendrix (21pts) leading the way for another All Stars win.

Warriors 93 - Gators 85: Not sure too many would have tipped Altona getting this close to the Warriors, and absolutely nobody would have predicted an overtime thriller. The Gators took it right up to the top team with Justin Eckhardt (21pts) leading a very competitive effort by the visitors. Pakenham will take the win and move on, but it definitely came with a scare. Brad Bridgewater (28pts) wound back the clock, while Ben Gaze (20pts) and Nick Ross (18pts) played supporting roles.

Sharks 78 - Heat 82: A 32-22 second half by Mildura pushed the visitors to a rousing win down at the Shark Tank. The home team just couldn't get it going after the long break, struggling to score in what turned into a real battle to the final buzzer. Calvin Henry (24pts) and Dallas Brown (19pts) never left the court for the Heat, while Cameron Kelly's 21pts off the bench proved to be a match-winning performance. For the Sharks, who only played seven players, Justin Taylor (22pts) top scored, with just 7pts coming from the bench.

Giants 84 - Breakers 69: In a very important game for both teams, Coburg came up trumps against Mornington courtesy of a 55-31 second half. The Breakers are all over the shop right now and just cannot string four quarters together. Jordan Harding (27pts) was huge off the bench for the home team, with Mweemba Maluma adding 15pts. For the disappointing Breakers, Glenn Wansbrough (14pts) dug in and did all he could.

Eagles 77 - Suns 60: Sherbrooke traveled to Craigieburn and looked competitive early, taking a 1pt lead into the long break. The second half opened up and the home team took control, putting on a 48-30 run to win the game comfortably. Dexter Graham (23pts) and Liam Watt (16pts) were again in the thick of it for the winners, while for the struggling Suns it was James Royal III (18pts) and Elias Kafrouni (16pts) flying the flag.

Panthers 80 - Warriors 86: Pakenham kept its unbeaten run alive with a 49-27 second half to topple the Panthers. The home team looked like they might grab the biggest win of their season, jumping to an early lead on the back of Hayden Annett (21pts) and Demetrious Robinson (17pts). However, with Bridgewater (25pts, 14rbs) completing one of his best weekends in five years, and Robin Maartens (22pts) lively off the bench, the Warriors grabbed yet another victory.

Dragons 63 - Heat 68: Mildura came to town and made it a perfect double, backing up Saturday's win with a hard-fought victory at Camberwell on Sunday. A 25-10 second qtr by the Heat broke the game open, the Dragons fighting back hard late, but the visitors managed to hold them at bay. Brown (20pts) and Henry (17pts) looked tired but came up trumps for the winners, while Camberwell relied heavily on Michael Osekowski (17pts) again.
